

Code of Good Practice NANDI ADVENTURI by people.for you.with locals

As part of our commitment to advancing sustainable tourism, we encourage our tourism partners to improve their sustainability performance by providing them with the guidance below.

- Ensure applicable legal permits are in place
- Ensure insurance is in place for guests and team
- Respect local leadership / traditional governance structures; their permission being obtained for visits to take place
- Identify health & safety risks, implement management systems, and provide appropriate safety equipment
- Ensure enough team members are available in case of emergency
- Monitor activity area conditions (including weather) in advance & during the activity
- Be familiar with activity area and ensure that navigation and communication tools are in good working order
- Maximise local economic benefits through employment and supporting local businesses / hosts
- Engage local stakeholders about how the activity should happen, and to ensure social and environmental impacts are managed responsibly
- Agree expectations and responsibilities of the experience with local businesses / hosts
- Ensure regular engagement with local businesses / hosts to improve quality and ensure that respect for cultural heritage is maintained
- Avoid single use & disposable items, provide adequate waste collection facilities for safe disposal (or better yet - pack out what you take in), and pick up any rubbish found along the way
- Be waterwise and take pro-active measures to use water sparingly
- Minimise energy used in the activity as part of a climate action strategy
- Provide information in advance about your sustainability actions, activity accessibility, what to expect, and what to bring with
- Screen participants to make sure that the activity is well suited to their fitness & level of ability
- Manage group size to minimise impacts on people & the planet
- Ensure that activity vehicles do not disturb residents
- Obtain written confirmation, e.g., via indemnity, that participants are aware of activity risks
- Brief participants about do's and don'ts, safety, what to expect, applicable etiquette / conduct to be respectful of, topics of conversation that might be culturally inappropriate, activity areas / buildings that might be off-limits, and logistical considerations before the activity starts
- In sensitive socio-economic or cultural contexts, e.g., communities with little contact with other cultures, someone from the local community must accompany the group
- Share information about local nature and culture along the way and social development / conservation projects that participants may want to support
- Facilitate opportunities for meaningful exchange with local people
- Show respect for the land, waterways, wildlife, and others in the area
- Repair and compensate for any damage caused to the activity area
- Contribute to conserving activity area integrity; let relevant authorities / leadership know about any concerns and participate in rehabilitation projects
